

STUDY GROUP SEES CAVALRY BATTLE SITE

The fifth annual Civil War Study group left here at 8:30 o'clock this morning for Brandy Station, Va., to see the site of the Cavalry battle which in a sense marked the opening of the Battle of Gettysburg.

Col. J. Gay Seabourne, retired army officer, Civil War buff and past president of the District of Columbia Civil War Round Table, outlined details of the Battle of Brandy Station to the members of the study group and the Gettysburg Civil War Round Table at a meeting in the Gettysburg College Student Union building Sunday night.

The events at Brandy Station June 9, 1863, led the North to claim a victory. Richmond, Va. newspapers criticized General J. E. B. Stuart. The Confederate Cavalry battle "was a draw," Col. Seabourne said.

"Hooker had given General Alfred Pleasanton, the Union Cavalry commander, orders to take his 8,500 cavalymen south, accompanied by 2,400 infantrymen, to 'attack, disperse and destroy Stuart's cavalry.'"

UNION RETREATS

General John Buford, who was to gain even greater fame July 1, 1863, at Gettysburg when his cavalry held off the Confederate forces for hours, attacked the Confederates from the front. Union General Gregg took his division of cavalry to the rear of Stuart's unit and for a time had the Confederates trapped between his forces and Buford's division.

But in the afternoon the Union forces retreated after suffering losses of 850 killed, wounded and missing, while the Confederates had lost 500 of their 8,500.

It was then announced that the Union forces had made a most successful "reconnaissance in force" and learned much of the Confederate movements.

DOUBTS ORDERS

Col. Seabourne said he would believe the "reconnaissance in force" version if a brigade had been sent, but could not believe that the entire U. S. Cavalry Corps and additional infantry would be (Continued On Page 3)

Two Infants, 27 Killed In Plane Crash

HONOLULU (AP)—Twenty-seven persons, including two infants, died today when a disabled Canadian Pacific turbo-jet airliner with 40 persons aboard crashed and burned in an emergency landing attempt.

The Federal Aviation Agency said the big Britannia aircraft which originated in Vancouver, B.C., was enroute to Sydney, Australia, and Auckland, New Zealand, via Honolulu when one of engines apparently failed shortly after takeoff here.

The craft left Honolulu International Airport with 29 passengers and 11 crewmen and returned about 45 minutes later after the pilot dumped fuel over the Pacific in preparation for the landing.

FUSELAGE BREAKS

D. J. Tierney, FAA spokesman, said the plane approached the runway for a normal landing on three engines at 11:19 p.m. but then skidded into a mass of grading equipment nearby, the fuselage snapped and the engines burst into flames.

Wreckage was strewn over an area the size of a football field. The condition of the survivors, who were taken to nearby Hickham Air Force Base Hospital, was not immediately known.

The FAA said the pilot notified its control tower he was cutting off the engines soon after takeoff. He requested and was granted permission to dump fuel for the emergency landing, officials said. Tierney said when the aircraft approached the runway it suddenly veered to its left.

Gettysburg firemen were called Saturday afternoon to the Jennie Wade House and found that a faulty electrical fixture had burned a small hole in the floor. Damage was slight.

Damage Action Follows Accident

A truck-auto crash in Bonneauville last December 7 is the basis for a damage action started in the county courts here on Saturday by Oscar E. and Edythe I. Feeman, Littlestown R. 1, against Dennis Wallick, 174 W. King St., Littlestown, and the Aero Oil Company of New Oxford.

Mr. and Mrs. Feeman were injured when a car operated by the former was in collision with an Oero Oil Company truck operated by Wallick. Negligence on the part of Wallick is alleged. The Feeman car is reported to have been demolished. The suit is for loss of the car and for pain and suffering on the part of Mr. and Mrs. Feeman.

Ben Bella Radicals Break With Premier, Threaten Algiers With Rival Regime

LEMEN, Algeria (AP)—Ahmed Ben Bella's leftist radicals broke completely with the moderate government of Premier Ben Youssef Ben Khedda Sunday night and set up the framework for a rival regime to take the helm of this newly independent nation.

The dissidents proclaimed themselves the rightful leaders of the National Liberation Front (FLN), Algeria's dominant political and military group. They announced formation of a seven-man political bureau "qualified to assume the leadership of the country, the reconversion and reorganization of the party and the national army, and the construction of the state."

Accusing Ben Khedda of establishing a police state, the dissidents called on Algerians to rally to Ben Bella and establish "freedom, security, dignity, legality and true democracy" in Algeria.

72 LAYMEN AT LUTHERAN RETREAT HERE

Seventy-two Lutheran laymen from churches in Adams, York, Cumberland and Franklin Counties attended the 17th annual retreat for lay leaders held Saturday and Sunday in the Church of the Abiding Presence on the Seminary Campus.

In his keynote address on the retreat theme, "The Witnessing of the Lay Ministry of the Church," the Rev. Dr. Frederick K. Wentz of the seminary faculty told the group that the most effective way for laymen to act is through small groups studying church policies and principles and determining in that way how best to apply those principles to modern life.

There was a Saturday evening travelogue by Paul F. Osborn of Biglerville; a Sunday morning Communion service conducted by Dr. Wentz; a Bible hour in the chapel lecture room starting at 10:30 a.m. and a panel program in the afternoon on the retreat theme, Dr. Wentz was the moderator and the members of the panel were Dr. J. Franklin Miller, Carlisle; Robert Menges of Menges Mills, and R. William Higgins, Chambersburg.

At a business meeting following the Sunday dinner meeting, the same staff of officers was named for another year. It includes: Advisor, the Rev. Francis Reinberger of the seminary faculty; president, Arthur E. Shatto, Dallastown; first vice president, George E. Meckley, Abbottstown; second vice president, H. Vernon Tyson, Seven Valleys, and secretary-treasurer, Charles L. Yost, Biglerville.

COUNTY GIRLS OPEN CAMP AT BUTTON BAY

By IRENE GLENNY Times Roundup Reporter

After leaving York by bus at midnight July 17, the eight Adams County representatives arrived at the third National Girl Scout Senior Roundup at Button Bay, Vt., about 5 p.m.

The girls Linda Bream, Irene Glenny, Betty Hostetter, Carol Houck, Sally Moore, Beverly Phiel, Jane Toomey and Sally Wolfe, checked into section headquarters, received their roundups and hats, deposited money and valuables in the bank and reported for physical checks.

About 6:30 o'clock the girls located their equipment and began to set up tents, their homes for the next two weeks, and kitchen units. Although it was pouring rain, spirits were undampened and the girls displayed the same eagerness they have shown through all the training sessions.

Taps sounded at 10:30 p.m. to end the first day of roundup. The first full day's activities began when the group was awakened at 7 o'clock, prepared breakfast, cleaned up and then attended the flag ceremony. The "Avenue of Flags" contains 410 flags from all the states of the United States and from the foreign countries represented at roundup. When all the flags are raised together and unfurled in the breeze, the "Avenue" is a very inspiring and impressive sight.

Patrol meetings were then held and the girls were given an opportunity to get acquainted with others through an extensive swapping program.

Sally Wolfe, Jane Toomey, Carol Houck and Irene Glenny participated in the evening flag ceremony.

The first demonstrations were planned for last Friday with an all-roundup campfire held in the main outdoor arena during the evening. The 8,500 Scouts and 1,500 adult leaders are making the third national roundup a never-to-be-forgotten experience for everyone attending.

One great difficulty in reporting activities of the local group is that it has been divided into patrols, with only two Adams County girls together. With everyone scattered over 450 acres, it becomes almost impossible to keep contact with one another.

UNIONS DELAY MISSILE WORK STRIKE PLANS

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Two big unions have agreed to President Kennedy's request for a postponement of a threatened aerospace industry strike—giving negotiators 60 days to seek a settlement.

Labor contract talks were scheduled to resume here today. United Aerospace Workers at Ryan Aircraft in San Diego and North American Aviation in Los Angeles agreed to the 60-day postponement Sunday.

ACCEPT SATURDAY

The International Association of Machinists accepted the President's recommendation on Saturday. The IAM had planned to strike General Dynamics-Convair and Lockheed.

Delay of the strike, originally scheduled for noon today, will give labor and management a chance to work out their differences under the mediation of a special three-man board appointed Saturday by the President.

The walkout would have involved about 150,000 workers at 53 plants and missile bases throughout the nation.

DOUGLAS GROUP

Although there was no indication that an industry-wide settlement was near, UAW members at the Douglas Long Beach plant voted Sunday to ratify an agreement reached by company and union negotiators last Monday.

The Douglas agreement included a 25-cent an hour increase, supplemental unemployment benefits and an agency shop which would require nonunion workers to pay fees to the union for acting as bargaining agent.

The United Aerospace Workers are affiliated with the United Auto Workers.

In other action Sunday IAM workers at Lockheed Aircraft's Burbank, Calif. plant rejected the company's latest offer.

Kennedy's move in calling for the strike postponement came as a surprise to some union and management leaders.

They had expected him to make use of the Taft-Hartley Act and obtain an injunction which would have postponed a strike for 90 days.

The procedure adopted by the President enables him to use the Taft-Hartley powers at the end of the 60-day period.

14 Nations Sign Treaty Of Independence For Laos

GENEVA (AP) — Delegates of 14 nations today signed a treaty of independence and neutrality for Laos formally bringing to a close 14 long months of efforts to restore peace to the Asian Kingdom.

When all had signed, neutralist Premier Souvanna Phouma of Laos declared:

"We shall fulfill the obligations of the conference imposed on us. We shall do everything to maintain an independent, prosperous and neutral Laos."

In Moscow, Premier Khrushchev hailed the treaty as eliminating "a dangerous seat of war" in Southeast Asia.

OTHER PROBLEMS

The agreement included two documents plus a declaration of neutrality and a protocol covering the withdrawal of foreign troops from Laos.

The 14-nation conference assembled to deal with the crisis reached agreement last Wednesday. Since then the foreign ministers gathering to sign the treaty have been occupied with other, unsettled problems, especially Berlin, Germany, nuclear testing and disarmament.

U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko have met twice for long talks on the major East-West issues. Both Gromyko and American sources have indicated there probably will be an Geneva meeting before they leave Geneva.

HEAR HEELED AGENTS SHAPE SOME POLICY

By JOSEPH E. MOHBAT

WASHINGTON (AP) — Foreign agents with plenty of money to work with may be wielding increasing influence over U.S. foreign policy, a Senate committee staff report concludes.

And the Justice Department, the report contends, seems to be falling down in its legal task of keeping close tabs on these non-diplomatic representatives of other nations.

The report by the staff of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee is the result of a preliminary investigation of the operations of foreign agents. Chairman J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., plans hearings on the subject this fall.

SHOULD KNOW

While there is nothing wrong with most of these attempts by other nations to affect U.S. policy abroad, Fulbright says, the United States at least ought to know who's doing what along those lines.

A Justice Department spokesman said the report seems to contain some inaccuracies. He noted it mentions only seven agents who filed inaccurate or incomplete descriptions of their activities—out of some 1,550 registered with the department.

The investigation drew attention when operations of lobbyists for countries seeking sugar quotas were widely criticized after Congress passed new sugar legislation earlier this month.

The report noted one agent helped set up a presidential economic mission to another nation. Another incident, it said, involved the use of foreign aid funds to pay a lawyer who negotiated a loan for a foreign country.

TRAIN DERAILS

DIJON, France (AP)—A Paris-Marseilles express derailed near here today and a government rescue service official said hundreds had been injured and more than a score killed.

FATALITY IS BASIS FOR SUIT

The accident on August 1, 1960, in which three Hoffman Home children were killed and 16 others injured furnishes the basis for a suit filed in court here on Saturday by one of the injured youngsters and his father.

The suit is against the Hoffman Home, Littlestown R. 1, and Ronald Gaylor, also of Littlestown R. 1, by Vaughn Wagaman, Fayetteville R. 2, formerly of near Littlestown, and his son, Gerald Kingsford Wagaman, who is a minor.

The tragedy occurred about four miles from Littlestown late on the afternoon of August 1, 1960. The papers filed in the suit allege the pickup truck in which the youngsters were riding ran off the road and struck a bank and allege negligence on the part of the driver, Gaylor.

The boy was among the injured and the suit is for hospital and doctor bills which total $563.50 in addition to $5,000 for pain and suffering and disfigurement.

COURT ACTION AIMED AT BAN FOR MARCHERS

ALBANY, Ga. (AP) — Integrationists seek court action today to upset a federal judge's injunction barring them from staging mass demonstrations and other desegregation activities in Albany.

The legal move follows integration leader Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s charge that a few Southern federal judges are engaged in a conspiracy with political leaders to maintain segregation.

William Kunstler, of New York, an attorney for the American Civil Liberties Union, had a petition ready for filing with U.S. Dist. Judge W. A. Bootle at Macon, 112 miles north of this south-west Georgia city.

EYE NULLIFICATION

Kunstler, assigned to help in the Albany integration movement, said he hoped Bootle would nullify an injunction issued Friday night by another U.S. District Judge, J. Robert Elliott of Columbus.

Kunstler said the petition was based on the contention that Elliott lacked jurisdiction.

Despite Elliott's broad injunctive decree, 160 Negroes and one white youth marched to the downtown area Saturday night and were jailed after more than 100 fell to their knees and prayed on the sidewalk.

PLEDGED TO FIGHT

King pledged to fight the injunction through the courts but he told a mass meeting of Negroes Sunday, "I will not go out on a door-knocking campaign trying to tell people not to take part in what their conscience tells them they ought to do."

Earlier at a news conference, King and the Albany movement president, Dr. W. G. Anderson, said they and others named in the injunction would abide by the court order. But they called Elliott's order unjust and unconstitutional.

A quiet Sunday was marked by a brief prayer demonstration on the City Hall steps. Six Negroes, led by the Rev. E. James Grant, knelt on the steps and prayed, then left without incident.

"GO FORWARD"

Forward to a bright tomorrow ever hopeful time will bring . . . hours of complete contentment . . . or at least a song to sing . . . onward with a prayer to guide me . . .
prayer is faith and faith is strength . . . so however rough the path is . . . I can go to any length . . . going with a dream undaunted . . . though at each and every turn . . .
I encounter waves of trouble that are prone to make me yearn . . . time has taught me not to retreat . . . matters not how rough the way . . .
carry on, the future beckons
God decreed how long we stay . . . such has been my code to live by . . . and I know 'twill always be . . . forward, to a bright tomorrow
those who seek will find the key.

CLARK FEELS NEED OF TRADE BILL GUARDS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., says he will make every effort to see that adequate protection for domestic industry is written into the administration's foreign trade bill before it comes up for a Senate vote.

And Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., says Republicans have written safeguards into the Kennedy administration's trade bill, making the measure something of a bipartisan effort.

Clark said he would seek assurance the House-passed bill, which goes before the Senate Finance Committee today, would provide regular distribution. Although a backer of the bill, Clark said he did not want to see Pennsylvania communities hurt by it. The bill would permit the president to slash tariffs by as much as 50 per cent.

SUNDAY SHOW

Clark's comments, made Sunday on his weekly radio-television show taped for Pennsylvania stations, marked the second time during the weekend he spoke out concerning administration backed programs.

At a rally in Springfield Township, Pa., Saturday, Clark deplored the Senate's failure to pass a compromise measure providing medical care for the aged. He blamed Scott for the failure.

Clark said Scott's vote was decisive in defeating the compromise health care bill.

Scott commented on the trade bill in another taped radio-television program Sunday. He appeared with Rep. Thomas B. Curtis, R-Mo.

MAY SETTLE M. C. DISPUTE

SASKATOON, Saskatchewan (AP) — The Saskatchewan medical care dispute was expected to be settled today.

Reliable sources said the province's striking doctors and the Socialist provincial government were on the verge of agreement after four days of negotiations. The key was draft legislation to amend the medical care insurance law.

Most Saskatchewan doctors boycotted the medical program by closing their offices when the law went into operation July 1.

The law set up a compulsory, prepaid medical care insurance plan for all persons. The Saskatchewan College of Physicians and Surgeons said it exerted too much government control over doctors. The college is the governing body of Saskatchewan doctors.

It was understood the new draft legislation embodied most of the principles outlined in a settlement proposal made last Wednesday by the college president, Dr. H. D. Dalgleish. Health Minister W. G. Davies had welcomed the college proposals.

Dr. Dalgleish's proposals called for a special session of the legislature to pass amendments to allow doctors to practice outside the plan. It also asked for negotiated amendments affecting the powers of the insurance commission and the Cabinet.

Ike Sees Old Battlefield In Normandy

CHERBOURG, France (AP) — Former President Eisenhower returned to France as an honored tourist today with a quick look from the train window at the Normandy battlefield area in store for him.

Eisenhower, his wife, Mamie, and grandchildren Barbara Anne and David, arrived aboard the Queen Elizabeth for a six-week European tour.

The wartime Allied commander's return to Normandy came about by chance. He had originally been scheduled to arrive on the liner France at Le Havre, west of Normandy, and his train to Paris would have missed Normandy. When a strike delayed the sailing of the France, Eisenhower switched to the Queen Elizabeth, which docks at Cherbourg.

The train from Cherbourg to Paris passes through Sainte Mere Eglise, Carentan, Bayeux, and Caen, all key points in the Allied invasion that began on June 6, 1944.

Van Zandt Blasts Clark Farm Bill Vote

POTATO CITY, Pa. (AP) — U.S. Rep. James E. Van Zandt says U.S. Sen. Joseph S. Clark voted for President Kennedy's ill-fated omnibus farm bill "in open defiance of the wishes of the farmers of his state."

Van Zandt, Clark's Republican opponent in the November election, spoke to a GOP family picnic in this Potter County community over the weekend. He noted Clark's vote in favor of the bill and said:

"He voted for that bill in the Senate in open defiance of the wishes of the farmers of his state and their organizations. I say that he is guilty of flagrant misrepresentation of the people of Pennsylvania."

The bill was killed in the U.S. House.

The congressman said Clark represented the Kennedy administration in Congress rather than his Pennsylvania constituents.

Cars Collide Here Sunday Evening

Cars operated by Lester M. Miller Jr., 26, Gettysburg R. 6, and by J. Milton Bender, 61, Longview, figured in a $250 collision about 5:30 p.m. Sunday at the intersection of Carlisle St. and Lincoln Ave. No one was injured.

Borough police investigated and said that Miller was headed north on Carlisle St. and had stopped for a traffic light. When the light changed to green, an unidentified station wagon on Miller's right swerved to the left in preparation for a right turn onto the Harrisburg Rd., causing Miller also to swerve to the left and his car and Bender's southbound machine collided.

Miller's damage was placed at $50 and to the Bender car at $200. No charges were filed.

LEGION HEAD LAUDS GROUP

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Louis J. Greco, 44-year-old West Wyoming High School teacher who is the new commander of the Pennsylvania American Legion, says the legion is the greatest force for good that America has ever known and must not become complacent now.

"We have a job to do this year," Greco told delegates after his installation Saturday at the closing of the organization's 44th annual convention. "And we will do it," he promised.

Greco, founder of West Wyoming's Post 904 in Luzerne County, succeeds George Bruno of Fountain Hill.

The state legion's highest citation, the Distinguished Service Medal, was conferred upon Walter Annenberg, publisher of the Philadelphia Inquirer; Michael M. Markowitz of Swoyersville; and Mayor Robert M. McGovern of Fountain Hill. The three were cited for outstanding contributions to the community, state and nation.

The convention was climaxed by a parade through downtown Philadelphia.

Rev. Mr. Frantz also was presented with a plaque by the president of the Upper Adams Lions Club, "Jim" Shetter, in behalf of the club members. It was inscribed appropriately expressing appreciation for "outstanding service to the club and the community from 1954 to 1962." Rev. Mr. Frantz was a former club officer.

In his final sermons Sunday at the 9 o'clock service in Biglerville and at 11 o'clock in Arendtsville, he recalled highlights of his 18 years as pastor since his installation April 23, 1944. He estimated he preached more than 850 sermons in that time, conducted 72 Holy Communion services, received 256 children through baptism, performed 38 weddings, for Zion folk and 14 for Trinity members and officiated at 149 funerals. He noted: "We can be justifiably proud, pastor and people, of our accomplishments."

sent on a reconnaissance in force. He added that he would further believe that it might be possible except for Hallock's order to "attack, disperse and destroy."

"On a reconnaissance, your job is to fight only enough to gain information."

He added, "If it was a reconnaissance then it failed entirely, for practically all of the Confederate army was within a few miles of Brandy Station starting its march to Gettysburg and the Union cavalry never captured a single infantry soldier, and the records show the Union army immediately after Brandy Station had no more knowledge of the movement of Lee's Army north than it had before."

But Brandy Station was "one of the few pitched battles between cavalry and one of the last ones in which sabre swinging cavalry attacks occurred. It was also the first battle of the Civil War in which the Union Cavalry was the equal man for man to the Confederate Cavalry."

TO HEAR ADDRESSES

After visiting Brandy Station today, the study group will hear details of "Lee Enters the Valley" from Harry L. Campbell Tuesday morning and then hear a talk "Second Battle of Winchester" by Campbell in the afternoon.

Wednesday Campbell will continue his talks on "Advance into Pennsylvania" and "Confederate Convergence."

Thursday William Hassler will lecture on "A. P. Hill at Gettysburg" and the group will visit Herr's Ridge, Oak Hill and Seminary Ridge here. That afternoon Col. Wilbur S. Nye will talk on "Richard S. Ewell at Gettysburg." The group will also visit Barlow's Knoll, Culp's Hill and Cemetery Hill.

Friday morning James I. Robertson will speak on "James Longstreet at Gettysburg" and the tour will be to the Peach Orchard and Wheatfield area. In the afternoon Beverly M. Coleman will speak on "Robert E. Lee at Gettysburg" and Lee's Headquarters and Seminary Ridge will be visited.

Burns on two farms within a few miles of each other were destroyed by fires blamed on lightning bolts Saturday evening. The total loss amounted to an estimated $24,000.

Taneytown and other fire companies were called to both blazes, one on the state line between Littlestown and Taneytown and the other on the Keymar Rd. out of Taneytown.

The first call was to the Harold Study farm between Littlestown and Taneytown on the state line about 8:25 o'clock where two barns, one of them measuring 30 x 50 feet, were destroyed along with quantities of baled hay. The buildings were valued at $8,000 and their contents at $4,000.

Littlestown and Kingsdale firemen were called to the fire in addition to Taneytown.

As the Taneytown firemen were returning to their engine house shortly before midnight they were called by radio to the second fire after lightning had knocked out telephone communications. The second blaze was on the Morris Zentz farm on Maryland Route 194. There a large barn and 5,000 bales of hay burned with a loss of $12,000.

Union Bridge firemen also were called to that blaze.

A large box was forwarded by the patriotic citizens of Fairfield on Saturday last to the Hospital of sick and wounded soldiers at York. A list was promised us for publication but was not furnished. We have not a doubt it was filled with the most suitable articles and will bring comfort to the suffering soldier. Go on with your good work — there is a great deal to do in this particular — do not be "weary in well-doing."

The loss of the Pennsylvania Reserves in the battles before Richmond, according to a letter from head-quarters, appears to have been 1,800 wounded and missing. The aggregate of the Division fit for duty on the 21st of June was 12,262 — on the 6th of July, 10,402. This, says the writer, "is a splendid showing after four battles, in which we bore the brunt of the enemy's attack."

Vinegar — Vinegar: The undersigned has commenced the manufacture of Vinegar, on Washington street, a few doors north of West Middle Street, Gettysburg. He has been manufacturing this Vinegar for nearly one year and it has given general satisfaction. The superiority of this Vinegar over all other manufactured Vinegar consist in its being made entirely of grain, no acid of any kind being used in its composition, and free from every thing injurious. It is strong, and at the same time pleasant to the taste, and has all the preservative qualities found in pure Cider Vinegar. He is prepared to wholesale this Vinegar in any quantity. Call and examine for yourselves. ADAM DIEHL

German Coolness: On the recent retreat of McClellan's line, the wife of a wounded German was seen carrying along all her husband's equipment, musket and all, which were strapped upon her in true military order, while he, with crutch and cane, hobbled by her side, smoking and chatting as if all was the most common thing in the world. Many such sights were seen on every side.

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
The Auditor General's report shows that Pennsylvania furnished 362,284 men in the late war, exclusive of the 25,000 militia called out in September, 1962.

A Fact: The States of Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois have all emerged from the crisis of the war with diminished debts. We not only decreased our debts but our taxes also, and did it amidst the flame and fury of war. And why? The answer is plain and clear. Because the reins of the Government were in the hands of the friends of the country. The affairs of the State were managed by men devotedly and enthusiastically loyal. In their hands our honor and credit are safe. This is the secret of it all.

The Fair Grounds: The Managers of the Agriculture Society are energetically pushing the improvements on their grounds, fronting on West High street, and preparing for the Fair this fall. The trotting course is nearly finished and will be one of the best in the State. The building for the exhibits of grains, fruits, vegetables, the smaller kinds of machinery, etc., is nearly or quite finished. The front enclosure is now being put up, leaving room for a pavement fifteen feet wide along the entire front. The main building will be commenced as soon as the lumber for it shall arrive, and the contract is that it be delivered during the present month. The President and Managers will make every possible arrangement for a grand Fair — and they trust every part of the county will be represented by exhibitors, as well as visitors.

Today's TalkMAGNETISM
Each of us is a sort of magnet in ourself.

The beautiful things of the earth are about us, as well as those which are base and full of ugliness. But in order to attract those things which shall bring to us that sense of satisfaction which alone is able to make us happy, we must first have elements of beauty hidden within us with which to attract!

We are creatures of impulse. But our impulses must be watered at high tide. We must fill our reservoirs with those things which we most lack, so that at times when we need them most, we shall not attempt to draw from our wells and find them dry.

Who is it who is not thrilled in the presence of gentleness, overflowing sunshine, or generous warm-heartedness?

Often in my travels, I have met a personality that stayed with me — and continued its inspiration, simply because there was something about it of genuineness that radiated itself as we met. In like manner we may be that sort of personality to others unknown to us.

They tell me that a diamond cannot be dissolved. But the greatest thing about this stone is the fact that it is always attracting beauty to itself. It will not shine in the dark, but place it in the rays of the sun and it will dance and sing, even absorbing the light rays, itself thereby becoming brighter!

Every beautiful thought you think is bound to attract more beautiful thoughts.

The more you are able to appreciate loveliness, the more you are going to have it in your inner self, to radiate for the benefit of other people. And only as you have, are you going to be able to make others want! I believe it was Maeterlinck who wrote that "the soul changed into beauty the little things we gave to it."

Yes, we are a sort of magnet. But a magnet only attracts its own kind!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Dictionary"

Just FolksINFLEXIBLE LIFE

Life seldom bothers us with preaching.

It has a sterner way of teaching.

As little children it begins

To rap our knuckles and our shins,

Instructing us with stinging pain

Not to do careless things again.

Life's laws are fixed for great and lowly.

Through punishment we learn them slowly.

For every blunder that is made

In suffering the cost is paid.

How'er we whimper while we live

There's none of us will life forgive.

Wise is the man who understands

How fixed and firm are life's commands

And learns, before the time is gone,

The things which life insists upon.

For in those limits he will find

Health, happiness and peace of mind.

In 1863 made havoc with many of the specimens and tore up things generally. Since then the Board of Trustees purchased a valuable collection of minerals in New York, at a cost of over $3,000, and Dr. Morris, who is thoroughly at home in these matters, undertook, by request of the Board, to re-arrange the entire Cabinet, assisted by Rev. Dr. Hay, and we need scarcely say that it was well done. A valuable addition to the Cabinet has recently been made by a lady of Germantown, who presented an extensive botanical collection.

The Catholic Church in Buchanan Valley, usually spoken of as "the Chapel," has just undergone a thorough repair, having been frescoed and the altar, pews, etc., remodeled. The frescoing was done by George Selling of Reading and the carpenter's work by George Warner of this place. The improvements cost about $700.

Phils-Cubs Will Really Test Telstar

CHICAGO (AP)—Europeans receiving televised broadcasts from Telstar will have an opportunity to witness a portion of a major league baseball game today.

Sometime between 1:57 p.m. and 2:02 p.m. CDT, Telstar will be within range of Chicago. Then for 18 minutes, Telstar will pick up and relay action between the Philadelphia Phillies and Chicago Cubs in the first internationally televised sports event along with a telecast of President Kennedy's Washington news conference.

WGN-TV, working with the National Broadcasting Co., will provide the telecast. During this period, there will be no commercials but a running description of the game will be made by announcer Jack Brickhouse.

M'KINLY WILL FACE AUSSIE FOR NET TITLE

CHICAGO (AP)—Chuck McKinley, U.S. Davis Cup ace, and rangy Fred Stolle of Australia, No. 1 foreign seed, tangle today for the national clay court tennis championship.

After the match, McKinley will head the U.S. team to Mexico City for practices leading to the American Zone cup semifinals Aug. 4-6.

Marty Riessen, Big Ten champion from Northwestern, was a new addition to the team Sunday. He was named by captain Bob Kelleher to replace Whitney Reed, who was dispatched to the Pennsylvania Grass Court Tournament in Merion to try to recapture his form.

MAY PLAY SLAYS

If the U.S. team of McKinley, Jon Douglas, Frank "roehling," Dennis Raston, Don Dell and Riessen is successful against the favored Mexicans, its American Zone finals will be against Yugoslavia at Rye N.Y., Aug. 18-19. In all probability, Reed will rejoin the team then, Kelleher said.

McKinley top-seeded in the domestic bracket for the clay court meet, whipped third-seeded Douglas 6-4, 6-2 Sunday. The 23-year-old Stolle, recent Wimbledon doubles winner with Bob Hewitt, overpowered unseeded Bill Lenoir, University of Arizona student, 6-1, 5-7, 6-4.

Donna Floyd of Arlington, Va., 21-year-old former national collegiate champion from William & Mary and a semifinalist last year, won the women's title with a 6-3, 6-1 triumph over Carol Caldwell, Santa Monica, Calif.

Darlene Hard of Long Beach, Calif., and Sue Behlmer of Los Angeles won the women's doubles crown by defeating Marilyn Montgomery, San Antonio, and Carol Hanke, St. Louis, 6-2, 6-3.

McSherrystownCLASS OF 1937*HOLDS REUNION*MRS. LESTER BOWMAN*McSHERRYSTOWN — The graduating class of 1937 of Central Catholic High School, late of McSherrystown and presently known as Delone, held its silver anniversary Saturday evening with a dinner at the Hanover Dining. There were 19 of the graduation class present out of the 26 originally in the class. Members of their families also attended.

There are three members of the class deceased. A business meeting was held and class officers were elected as follows: President, Mrs. George Reynolds, Silver Spring Md.; vice president, Bernard Staub, Hanover 9; secretary, Fred Shrader, Hanover; and treasurer, Mrs. Paul Knox, McSherrystown. Harry F. Walter, McSherrystown, served as toastmaster.

Plans were made for another reunion to be held in 1967. The reunion was continued Sunday with the class and their families attending mass at the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary Church, McSherrystown, at 11 a.m.

To conclude their reunion weekend a swimming party and picnic was held at the Walter swimming pool, Second St., McSherrystown.

Cub Pack 107 of Annunciation Church will hold its monthly meeting this Thursday at the Walter pool. Anyone wishing may bring a basket lunch.

The old fire house in McSherrystown on Third St., opposite the Annunciation Church, has been razed and the lot is being prepared for additional parking space for the church.

Retreats for our laymen begin this weekend at Mt. St. Mary's and anyone wishing to make reservations may contact the Annunciation Parish secretary, Joseph Sneringer, North St., McSherrystown.

McSHERRYSTOWN—The regular meeting of the McSherrystown Knights of Columbus was opened by the new grand knight, F. Joseph Sneringer. The other newly-elected officers are as follows: Deputy grand knight, Norbert Felix; chancellor, Richard Cashen; warden, Clyde Sterner; recorder, Gene B. Noel; treasurer, Ray Hemler; inside guards, Walter Zimmer and Rodger Sanders; outside guard, John Folmer; lecturer, Thomas Livelsberger; advocate, J. Francis Yake, and trustee for three years, David Baker; appointed for another year were: Chaplain, Msgr. Patrick F. McGee, and financial secretary, I. M. Staub.

Under unfinished business the final cost of the Mother's Day Communion and breakfast was reported at $41.13 and the local advertising project was tabled since only two councils were interested in it. The baseball trip to Baltimore was a "fine success" with everyone having a good time. Seven members of the council took part in the recent district golf tournament and breakfast in York.

Some discussion was held on the new bookkeeping system advised by New Haven and also the need for a mimeograph and addressograph machine. Sneringer and Noel were appointed to get

STORM CURBS SUNDAY RACES

TRENTON, N.J. (AP)—Roger Ward, the speed demon from Speedway Ind., drove his leader car special to victory Sunday in the Trenton Speedway's National Championship Auto Race that was cut short by a thunderstorm.

The race, scheduled for 150 laps, was halted in the 142nd.

Ward, who won the Indianapolis 500 on Memorial Day, averaged 100.97 miles per hour. He collected top money of $6,700.

Taking second, and $4,200, was Don Branson of Champaign, Ill. Don Davis of Phoenix, Ariz., got $2,900 for finishing third.

Ward's time for the 142 laps was 1 hour, 24 minutes and 25.54 seconds. He set a track record for the first 100 miles by averaging 101.723 mph.

RAINS HIT NORTHEAST

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The rains came to the parched Northeast over the weekend, but they were too scattered and came too heavily for too short a time to offer substantial relief to drought-plagued farmers.

Showers and some downpours hit areas of New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania and Connecticut, but their scattered pattern and duration were such that they succeeded in flooding storm sewers and did not seep into the soil.

The showers hit sections of New Jersey's five northern drought-disaster area counties as well as some counties farther south.

In New York State, the 11-week drought has affected 32 counties with nearly 75 per cent of the state's farmland.

The U.S. Geological Survey held out little hope for drought relief. Noting that below-normal rainfall is forecast for August and that shallow wells in eastern and central New York are beginning to run dry, the government agency said: "The worst is yet to come."

Gallotette still holds the mile track record at Saratoga. As a 5-year-old mare carrying 112 pounds, she covered the distance in 1:35 2-3 in 1947.

The information needed on the machines.

Past Grand Knight B. I. Noel reported attending the cornerstone laying at Columbia with Henry Snyder, grand knight of Hanover council, on Sunday, July 1. Grand Knight Joseph Sneringer and the council expressed their thanks to Mr. Noel for his 17 years as grand knight.

Eastern League

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Williamsport Grays are acting like they want to win the Eastern League pennant by the biggest margin in the history of the Class A circuit.

The Grays, beating York 4-2 in 12 innings Sunday to sweep the five-game series, hiked their lead to 16 games. The most lopsided pennant race in the league was in 1946 when the Scranton Miners won the pennant by 18½ games.

In other games, last-place Springfield stretched its winning streak to seven games with a 3-1 victory over Binghamton, and Charleston beat second-place Elmira 4-3 to move into a third-place tie with York.

Williamsport left 18 men stranded on base but still managed to win, pushing across the deciding runs in the 12th on a single by Pat Corrales, an error, a walk and two sacrifice flies. Jack McCracken, who worked 11 innings for the Grays, was the winner.

Paul Colacceschi tossed a three-hitter for his fourth win without a loss since joining Springfield. Ron Phifer belted a two-run homer in the fifth inning, which won for the Giants. Nick Curtis (0-3) was the loser.

Charlestown took advantage of a two-base throwing error by outfielder Joe Pulliam in scoring three runs in the second inning, and then scored what proved to be the winning run in the seventh on successive singles by Joe Teague, Fritz Krase and Chico Cardenas. Pete Olsen (3-2) was the winner.

TROOPER IS AROUSED OVER "DEMOTION"

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP)—A veteran Pennsylvania state police trooper says he was suddenly transferred and then assigned janitor's duties after criticizing department policies.

Trooper George Caldarelli, 38, of nearby Westerville, said over the weekend he was ordered to "pick dandelions, wash cars, scrub floors and clean windows."

State Police Commissioner Frank McCartney Sunday referred inquiries about the case to Caldarelli's superiors, Capt. Abram Corbin and Lt. Edward McGroarty. They both declined comment "at this time."

HEADS F.O.P.

Caldarelli, a 17-year state police veteran cited in 1953 for making an arrest during which he was shot five times, said most of his troubles stemmed from his presidency of Lodge 40, Fraternal Order of Police.

He said he put out a monthly publication called "Sound Off—"

The May issue, he said, complained about promotion of an unqualified man and questioned why another was not forced to retire at the mandatory age of 60.

Caldarelli said he was told to tone down the articles by McGroarty, executive officer at the Bethlehem Barracks, which is Troop D headquarters.

Caldarelli said he wrote an open letter published in the July issue in which he supported charges by retired Capt. Lawrence Sapudary, who said last month that state police morale is low.

Shortly after the issue came out, Caldarelli said, he was telephoned by Corbin and told to transfer to Bethlehem.

Aubrey Linne, young offensive end of the Baltimore Colts, has grown from 228 pounds to 245.

STATE CHAMP IS WEEKEND GOLF DUFFER

ORCHARD LAKE, Mich. (AP)—Art Hudnutt, champion of the weekend duffers, could hardly believe he'd won the Western Amateur Golf Tournament.

"I can't think of anything more ridiculous than having Art Hudnutt's name follow Jack Nicklaus' on the trophy," said the new champion Sunday after he beat Bud Stevens of Detroit 1-up in their seessaw final match.

MOTEL CHECKOUT

"Why, I even checked out of my motel four times, expecting to be eliminated and go home. And each day after I won I had to check back in."

Hudnutt, often scrambling from traps and the rough, had to play 147 holes in five gruelling days to succeed Nicklaus, National Open champion and a fellow Ohioan, in the Western Amateur.

"No, I have no plans of following Nicklaus footsteps by turning pro and winning the National Open," said Hudnutt, a 32-year-old newspaper executive in Elyria.

Hudnutt fell one hole behind twice in the first five holes in the final with Bud Stevens—but took a 2-up lead by winning the seventh, eighth and ninth holes.

Hudnutt's approaches with his irons were his major weapons. He won holes after placing iron shots of 35, 25, 10, 3, 10 and 15 feet from the pin.

YOUNG BOWLER WINS TOURNEY

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Ray Orf, 21-year-old St. Louis bowler, won his first professional tournament Sunday night as he took the $20,500 All-American Classic with 3,497 pins, 10 victories against 6 losses and 126.17 points in the match game finals.

He won in a tense duel with Glen Blakesley of Kansas City, gaining the $2,850 first money by the margin of seven pins. He averaged 218 per game.

Blakesley won $1,350 second money. Third went to Andy March of Long Beach, Calif., who took down $1,100. Jim St. John of Minneapolis was fourth and won $1,000.

Reds Beat Mets Twice As Giants And Dodgers Win; Phillies Lose 3 To Braves

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Mets' magic number is 13. It has been obvious from the start of the season—that Casey Stengel's unlikely crew of heroes lost nine straight—that the number 13 would be closely associated with the new National League team.

Indeed, some of their more disappointed followers insist that they perform as if each and every player were that number on his uniform. That, however, is not the point.

Thirteen is the magic number. Any combination of Los Angeles Dodgers victories or New York Mets defeats totaling 13 will mathematically eliminate New York's bedraggled darlings from the National League title.

LOSE TWO SUNDAY

With a little luck—and the Mets have a lot of it, all bad—they could make it by Aug. 1. Which may be some sort of record in reverse, about the only type they are shooting for. They lurched two more giant steps toward one of those backward marks Sunday.

Cincinnati beat the hapless tailenders 11-4 and 4-3 for a double-header sweep with New York blowing an early lead in each game.

Pinch hitter Marty Keough completed the rout by clubbing a home run leading off the ninth inning of the nightcap, breaking a 3-3 tie. It provided New York with its eighth straight loss and pushed its record against the Reds to 0-7. It also was the 25th one-run game lost by New York this season.

GIANTS BEAT BUCS

The leading Dodgers maintained their two-game margin, clubbing Chicago 13-6 in a game halted because of rain after 6½ innings. San Francisco edged Pittsburgh 5-4. St. Louis took Houston 3-1 and Milwaukee swept a couple from Philadelphia, 11-0 and 5-2.

New York, which is now 39 games behind, had a 4-1 lead in the first game and 1-0 in the second before sixth-inning Cincinnati uprisings wiped them out. A two-run triple by Hank Foiles featured the six-run Red rally in the first and Vada Pinson's three-run homer did the job in second. The Mets scrambled back to tie the second game, but Keough's third homer of the season sent them reeling to their third longest losing string of the season. The Reds now have won five in a row.

Joe Nuxhall, just recalled from the first game victory and Jim Brosnan (4-1) got the second.

49TH WILLS STEAL

The Dodgers jumped on Cub starter Don Cardwell for five runs in the first inning and took it from there in the rain-shortened romp. Los Angeles' 15 hits included homers by Frank Howard and Harry Burridge and a couple of triples by Willie Davis, Maury Wills stole his 49th base. Ernie Banks hit his 24th homer for the Cubs.

San Francisco's victory over the Pirates gave them a 2½-game edge over the third-place Pirates. Bob Gibson (13-6) of St. Louis stopped Houston on seven hits, but had to have help from Lindy McDaniel in the ninth. Gibson retired 13 of the last 20 men to face him.

Milwaukee trailed 8-1 at one point in its opener against Philadelphia, but scored seven runs in the fourth inning and held on behind the solid relief pitching of Don Notbart to win it.

Fairfield Pony League

Mummasburg continued to hold a strong hand on first place by gaining a 9-0 forfeit decision over Fairfield while Cashtown pounded out 13 hits to wallop second place Amvets 12-9 Saturday afternoon.

P. Kump blasted a pair of doubles and B. Kessel went three-for-five at the plate to pace Cashtown to its win on the Amvet's diamond. L. Harbaugh and D. Dick registered a pair of hits each to account for four of the loser's seven safeties. Both of L. Harbaugh's blasts went for two-baggers.

Edgewood Closed

New Oxford is again sole possessor of first place in the tight South Penn League race as the result of nipping Littletown 3-1 on the latter's field Sunday afternoon.

Joe Bevenour's long home run with W. Billman on base via a single in the fourth inning was the key blow of the game. Jean Yealy accounted for Littletown's line run with a homer to deep center in the fifth.

Ron Weiger, winning pitcher, and the loser, Bob Weaver, each tossed the fine games, allowing seven hits and issuing two passes each. Fine fielding aided New Oxford with G. Billman turning in some nice plays at second base.

COP 8TH STRAIGHT
Gettysburg continued its sizzling pace by winning at Mummsburg 7-6 for its eighth straight triumph. The local team is now one of four tied for second place.

Arendtsville topped Fairfield 7-6 in a 10-inning thriller at Fairfield to leave both teams in the four-way second-place tie with Gettysburg and Littletown.

In a fast and well-played game at Cashtown, the home team edged Bonneauville 2-1. Cashtown tallied a run in the third on a single by Neely and double by Solomon. Bonneauville knotted the count in the seventh on a single by Shanebrook and long triple by Orndorff. The winning rally in the bottom of the eighth resulted when Bill Singler reached base on a fielder's choice, stole second base, went to third on an error and then stole home.

Dale Rhodes tossed a five-hit shutout as Manager Plavian Smith's McSherrystown squad blanked Harney 8-0 on the winners' field. He fanned 10 and walked three. McSherrystown iced the game in the first inning with five runs. Tom Staub singled, his sixth straight hit in recent games, and advanced on Ron Aspers' single. Chick Livelsberger was safe on his attempted bunt to advance the runners. Fred Murren singled home two runners. Dan Greenholt doubled home two more runs and an error enabled Greenholt to tally. A double by Bob Lehigh, single by Dale Rhodes and two errors allowed McSherrystown to add three runs in the fifth.

Taneytown outslugged Brushtown for a 9-66 victory at Brushtown.

2 Records Fall As U.S. Track Stars Whip Reds By Highest Score Ever

By JACK STEVENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

STANFORD, Calif. (AP)—The Soviet Union's track and field team came here with hopes high for defeating the United States men's team only to have them dashed by the highest score run up by an American team in this international competition.

Uncle Sam's young men's squad, giving a solid outlook for the 1964 Olympics, scored 128 points to 107 for the Soviet team in this fourth U.S.A.-U.S.S.R. competition.

The Soviets' Valery Brumel proved the individual star of Sunday's competition with a world record high jump of 7 feet 5 inches. In Saturday's opening events, Ha. Connolly of the United States broke his own hammer throw world record with a heave of 231 feet 10 inches.

SOVIET WOMEN
Women of the Soviet continued their mastery over Uncle Sam's girls as they scored 66 points to 41.

Twelve meet records fell during the two days of the men's competition — nine of them by United States athletes. Among the women, three were set, all by Russians.

Coach John Oelkers of Tulane, head of the men's team, voiced pride with his squad and the outlook for the United States in international competition.

OLYMPIC OUTLOOK
"Our '64 Olympic team will be great—this team is really young and our veterans will still be young enough, Oelkers said.

Soviet coach Gavriel Korobkov had termed this year's team the best men's group the U.S.S.R. had sent into the international competition. But as the Russians and Americans joined hands in the closing ceremonies, the U.S.S.R. men owned only three meet records, including Brumel's great high jump, and a double by Pyotr Bolotnikov in the 10,000 and 5,000 meter races.

Gettysburg Little League

With the end of the 1962 season at hand, the four teams competing Saturday afternoon used their bench strength and two interesting scores followed as the Lions defeated the Moose 12-8 in the first game while the Gettysburg National Bank edged Glenn L. Bream 1-3 in the nightcap.

Manager "Bud" Knox of the league champion Moose team, began his reserves who turned in a fine performance. The Lions, also playing under the same conditions, received excellent results. Don Steinour was the big gun in the Moose order as he pounded out two hits for three at bats. Dick Shetter and Bob Finkbner paced the Lions with the same number of hits.

Randy Phiel and Dave James tossed for the winners with Phiel receiving the victory. Wes Ayre started on the hill for the Moose, but needed help from Craig Hinkle.

A home run in the bottom of the sixth inning by leadoff batter Larry White, gave the National Bank its close decision over the Breammen.

Uniform School Buildings Rejected As Impractical

By FRED WALTERS
HARRISBURG (AP)—Whatever happened to . . . ?

That's a standard question when old friends meet and start talking about the old neighborhood, the old school, the old girl friends.

It's a frequent question also asked about legislation when the haze lifts after a session of the General Assembly.

It comes to mind now because a newspaper asked the other day: "Whatever happened to standardized school building plans?"

LEGISLATIVE MEASURES

Seven measures were in the 1961 legislature—six in the House and one in the Senate—proposing that the state draw up a set of standard school building plans.

Under the proposals, a school district planning to put up a new structure would write to the state Department of Public Instruction, get a set of plans in the return mail, and proceed from there.

It seemed, at least to its sponsors, a magical method of reducing the costs of school building construction, costs which grow and grow and grow each year.

ARCHITECTS' FEES

Architects fees for designing buildings would be reduced to practically nothing—so the thinking went—and materials, which would be uniform in almost every building, would be mass-produced, lowering reducing costs, and stockpiled for ready use.

Well, the answer is that absolutely nothing has happened to the legislative proposals on standardization. The bills died in the committees where they were introduced during the eight-month session, as did similar proposals in previous legislatures.

The Committee on Education appointed in 1960 to review all phases of public instruction in Pennsylvania considered the idea.

PLAN REJECTED

It was not included among the recommendations placed before the full committee by its task force on school building, headed by Mario Celli, McKeesport, president of the Pennsylvania Society of Architects.

In its final report, the full committee commented:

"The committee discussed the possibility of using standard plans for stock school buildings and rejected the idea. It did so because stock buildings are neither practical nor economical."

REASONS DISCUSSED

Noting the wide currency given the idea, however, the committee felt obliged to discuss its reasons in some detail:

"The terrain varies widely in the several regions of Pennsylvania, and it would entail increased costs to construct a standard building on anything but an absolutely level site. Site alteration and changes in standard plan foundations differing sites but only at costs which offset the economy of stock building use.

"Local building codes, trade practices and use of school buildings also vary widely. Climate is also a factor.

VARYING CONDITIONS

"Some building sites have easy access to water, sewers, rain water disposal and electricity or gas. Others must depend on septic disposal bring electricity from a distance, install transformers, or drill wells.

"In one part of the state it is economical to use steel frame structures; in others, reinforced concrete. Approach drives, parking, sidewalks and grading, all vary with every project.

"For all these reasons, cost of revisions that have to be made in plans for stock buildings offset any savings they create. Finally changes in construction methods, materials and educational practice come so rapidly in this modern age that such plans are obsolete and have to be revised before they can be of any real use."

Out of the movement for stock school building plans, however, has come something which the Department of Public Instruction feels may realize the same goals.

This is the so-called modular construction. This means that buildings will be constructed along dimensions based upon the multiple of a standard size. In other words, a window or a door or a wall would be a certain number of times the basic unit (module).

In Pennsylvania's case, the state Council of Education adopted on Sept. 28, 1960, four inches as the base unit. The council's action meant that no new buildings nor additions to existing ones have been approved since December, 1960, that weren't drawn on the modular principle.

Dr. Clyde E. Klinger, director of the department's Bureau of School Buildings, says it is too early to say factually whether this has effected genuine savings, but he feels from cursory observation that it has.

INDIANA, Pa. (AP)—An official of the U. S. Department of Labor says the job world of the future calls for people who have skills to sell.

Addressing more than 600 delegates at the closing of the Pennsylvania State School Directors Association meeting at Indiana State College, Herbert Bienstock said, "The day of the 'I can do anything' applicant is definitely past."

Bienstock is regional director of the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

The delegates to the three-day meeting also heard a panel discussion on school reorganization.

Association officials said they hope to be able to take a definite stand on school reorganization at a meeting in Pittsburgh in October.

The association's directors opposed the 1961 reorganization act in a formal resolution at their convention last fall. Since then the association has established a special committee on school district reorganization.

DOZEN KILLED IN PA. MISHAPS OVER WEEKEND

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Twelve persons died in accidents in Pennsylvania over the weekend, including five traffic victims and three anthracite miners who were killed by gas in a mine shaft.

The miners were killed Saturday by an accumulation of gas known as black damp in a mine shaft near Ashland. Dead were William Metzinger, 37, and Frank Shaefer, 30, both of Locust Dale, and Clayton Maurer, 63, of Mowry.

Richard Cappel, 25, of Lavelle, was rescued from the pit alive but unconscious. He was revived with oxygen and admitted to Ashland State Hospital where he was reported in "somewhat improved" condition today.

MAN ELECTOCUTED

Rescue workers went into the mine, which burrows into the side of a mountain and is known as a drift, when employees outside failed to receive a carload of anthracite.

The other weekend victims included: Montrose—Richard B. Ward, 16, Keshoppen, killed Sunday when his car ran out of control, struck a parked car and bounced into a utility pole near Springville.

Kittanning—Henry C. Knight, 54, of Kittanning, electrocuted Sunday while working on a construction project near Rural Valley in Armstrong County.

3 YOUNG MEN DIE

Reading—Raymond Pennypacker, 19, West Lawn, killed Saturday in a car-pickup truck crash 16 miles west of Reading.

Bradford—Kenneth Atkinson, 30, of Hartsdale, N. Y., killed Friday night in the crash of a private plane near Bradford.

Enola—Paul I. Foster, 20, killed Saturday, when his car overturned.

TRAGEDY AT TRACK

Palmyra—Milton Daniels, 44, of Palmyra killed Saturday when hit by a Reading Railroad train as he walked along the tracks.

Mahaffey—Blaine Arotin, 21, of Spangler, a mechanic, killed and 15 others injured Friday night when a stock car went out of control in a race and crashed into the pit area.

Indiana—Willis Brandon, 38, of Indiana R. 4, fatally injured Saturday when his car went off Route 119 and struck seven guard rails.

West Chester — Helen Brasse Towt, Rockville, Md., killed Sunday when thrown from and hit by her own car after a two-car collision.

DRIVER HURT IN SPEEDBOAT

NORRISTOWN, Pa. (AP) — A Virginia speedboat driver was reported in critical condition today with injuries suffered in an accident during the 10th Port Indian Regatta on the Upper Schuylkill River.

W. Curtis Martens, 49, of Newport News, owner and driver of the 266 cubic inch hydroplane Mar Bal, suffered a double fracture of the skull and a compound fracture of the right leg Sunday when his racer overturned.

The boat, traveling at 130 mph, was running third in the six-hour heat when it suddenly leaped into the air and came down in pieces on Mattens.

CAUSE UNKNOWN

Cause of the accident was not immediately determined.

Martens was pulled from the water by a fellow racer, George L. Smith, of Mt. Holly, N.J. He was rushed to Montgomery Hospital here.

The race, run in two heats, was won by Wawa, owned by Bill Ritter of Wawa, Pa., and driven by Curtis Estes, of Norfolk, Va. It averaged 101 mph in both five-mile heats.

Lawrence Blames GOP For Deficits

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Lawrence blames Republican-controlled legislatures for deficit spending by state administrations during the 1951-61 decade.

He says the state fiscal affairs are in order this year—and should remain so again next year.

Lawrence's contentions were contained in a letter he sent to Republican State Chairman George I. Bloom—the latest piece of correspondence to be exchanged by the two politicians in the battle of the balanced budget.

The content of the letter—dated July 20—was made public over the weekend.

INDIANS END LOSING SKEIN

LOS ANGELES (AP) — "Baseball," said manager Mel McGaha of the Cleveland Indians, "is a game of hills and valleys."

"And we've just been through a pretty deep valley."

To some Cleveland supporters, it must have looked suspiciously like Death Valley. For, while the Indians were losing nine straight games, the New York Yankees were winning nine in a row. At the start of that stretch, the two clubs were virtually tied for the American League lead. Today Cleveland trails the Yankees by seven games.

Sunday, by beating the Los Angeles Angels 7-3, the Indians broke their longest losing streak in more than 15 years. Since 1947, Cleveland had never lost more than seven straight until its recent tailspin. The club statistician has no records for years prior to 1947, so no one with the team knew exactly how long it had been since the Indians had dropped nine straight.

"If we had to go through a period like this," McGaha said, "I'm glad it's now, when we've still got a chance to recover. Late in the season, a slump like that might very well kill a team."

"As it was, the players probably got a little anxious and started pressing. But I'll say this for them: They never let down."

BOYLE'S Grab Bag

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

A sign of continuing prosperity is the fact that about one in every 120 U.S. homes now has a swimming pool.

If you are afraid of being poisoned and coconuts in the shell, eat are said to be hard-boiled eggs, and coconuts in the shell. Longevity tip: An anthropologist suggests we would all probably live longer if we would break into tears more often instead of suppressing our griefs and angers.

MORE DOCTOR CALLS

Why doctors are so busy: The average American now sees a doctor about five times a year, almost twice as often as he did 30 years ago.

Our quotable notables: "When you have got an elephant by the hind legs and he is trying to run away, it's best to let him run."—Abraham Lincoln.

There are about 26 trillion cells in the human body.

Household hint: A dab of cologne or perfume on an electric light bulb will sweeten the air of a room when you turn on the light.

TRAVEL COSTLY

Travel may broaden the mind—but it narrows the pocket book. The American Automobile Association now estimates the average couple on a motor trip spend $31 a day for food, lodging and fuel.

Brevity: A man living in Neuilly-Plaisance, France, is reported to have the shortest name in the world—Monsieur O.

An autumn or winter vacation now is the latest status symbol among top business executives. More go or holiday than than in summer.

GENUINE MOURNERS

Worth remembering: "The most genuine mourners are those left out of the will."

The good old days: At the 1851 World's Fair in England the most popular exhibits from the United States featured chewing tobacco and false teeth.

High cost of government: It now costs taxpayers more than a million dollars an hour merely to pay the interest on our federal debt.

THEORIES SHOT

The Japanese have had more success in keeping down prices. Phone calls are three cents, bus fares in Tokyo are four cents, and you can get a full-course steak dinner aboard a crack express train for about $1.35.

A lost convenience: Until the early 1900s, city directories here listed widows as such. Some bereft ladies willing to try a second marriage, wouldn't mind seeing the practice resumed. It pays to advertise.

It was Lord Rochester who observed, "Before I got married I had six theories about bringing up children; now I have six children, and no theories."

SPACE AGENCY PUSHES PLANS FOR VENUS HIT

By HOWARD BENEDICT

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — The nation's space agency pushed ahead today with plans to launch a second spacecraft to the planet Venus while technicians and engineers probed the failure of the first attempt.

The United States' initial effort to propel a vehicle to explore Venus failed early Sunday. The Atlas-Agena B booster rocket strayed off course and was destroyed nearly 100 miles above the Atlantic Ocean by the range safety officer. The electronic signal that killed the rocket was flashed 290 seconds after launching.

Flaming wreckage of the $8 million-rocket and $4 million-Mariner 1 payload plummeted into the sea. The spacecraft had been scheduled for a 139-day interplanetary journey designed to take it within 10,000 miles of the cloud-shrouded Venus next Dec. 8.

CREWS START WORK

Even before data could be analyzed to determine exactly what went wrong, crews started preparing the launching pad for another Atlas-Agena B and the Mariner 2 payload.

Time was the deciding factor in moving forward before data from the first shot had been completely analyzed. Venus comes into favorable shooting range only every 19 months and the National Aeronautics and Space Administration does not want to pass up an opportunity to send a spacecraft close to it to start an extensive program of planetary exploration.

The present 50-day favorable period extends through Sept. 10. A minimum of 24 days is required to prepare for another firing and officials indicated the Mariner 1 failure probably will add to that time while adjustments are made on the Atlas' first stage to assure the trouble is not repeated.

The difficulty was in the Atlas. Preliminary information indicated a flight control problem that apparently pitched the rocket nose down instead of straight up.

A successful Mariner launching this year could reveal composition of the Venusian atmosphere. This would help in designing the type of instrument capsule NASA plans to land on Venus in 1964.

KENNEDY WILL TRY TO BETTER BILL AVERAGE

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Kennedy administration has revived its hopes of prying out of a Senate-House conference committee a compromise bill to provide federal aid for higher education.

If this can be accomplished—and Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., predicted today it can—President Kennedy may improve the sagging batting average of his legislative program.

In the weeks before a possible Labor Day adjournment, the administration apparently will be heavily engaged in a salvage operation aimed at nullifying the Republican charge that a Democratic president has failed to get any important accomplishment out of a Democratic Congress.

NEW TRADE BILL

In rebuttal, Kennedy obviously is going to be able to point to a new international trade bill on which the Senate Finance Committee begins public hearings today. This measure, revised in the House before passage there, has attracted bipartisan support.

But the President needs more than this before he can do much pointing with pride to the record of the Democratic Congress which he will be compelled to defend in the November elections.

If he asks—and gets—an immediate tax cut, it might be singled out as a major achievement. But any request for such a tax reduction carries with it a White House acknowledgment that the economy is in the kind of difficulty that might be reflected in sweeping Republican gains in November.

NEED LEGISLATION

With his program of health care for the elderly buried, Kennedy's lieutenants feel they need some kind of school aid legislation to prove the administration can win some advances in controversial domestic fields.

They are fighting in the Senate to resurrect some segments of his tight controls farm program which the House already has tried to consign to the grave. They have hopes of getting a House-passed postal rate increase through the Senate also.

The issue of whether grants to church-operated colleges are constitutional lies at the heart of the present stalemate.

The department said over the weekend the office will be headed by Mrs. Kathryn S. McKenna of Scranton, who will receive an annual salary of $7,404.

DISILLUSION AND DOUBT CAN BE OVERDONE

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—Doubt and disillusion can be overcome, too. The blueprints for the 1962 economy offered at the start of the year proved too expensive.

When production and incomes and employment expanded — but not that much — the pessimists took over. They saw hard times coming.

Disappointed officials, although disavowing this outlook, also showed alarm. They said the economy was improving too slowly, as well it may be to meet all the goals.

If most citizens are confused right now by all this, it's understandable.

OUTPUT ROSE

While doubt and disillusion captured the headlines, the output of all goods and services in the nation rose by $7 billion in the April-May-June quarter to an annual rate of $552 billion. The total for all of 1961 was $518.7 billion.

The rise in this gross national product, announced Friday, was labeled disappointing because of hopes six months ago that the second quarter figures would be $560 billion or better.

But on the same day government officials were announcing the less-than-hoped-for rise in the national product, General Motors was reporting record sales and profits for the first six months of 1962.

GOOD AUTO YEAR

The auto industry as a whole has been having one of its best years.

American Telephone & Telegraph and International Business Machines also have reported increased revenues and earnings.

None of this means that the present situation is ideal.

The number of the jobless is too high. The rate at which new jobs are opening up is too low. Exports are high but not big enough to make up for other dollar spending abroad, so that our gold reserves are under pressure.

Business profit margins are too low to please management, which says this discourages business growth.

PUBLIC STAYS CALM

Taxes it's everyone — although how to change them to please everyone is the most complex and troublesome of problems.

But for all the hullabaloo today the public has stayed pretty calm.

Disillusioned? Yes—if you accepted all of the earlier predictions without reservations.

Disturbed by the stock market break? Yes — unless you were among those who thought prices had climbed too high.

Uncertain about the future? Of course, in a fast changing world like this.

But only a few believe that everything really is going to pot. The present situation isn't ideal. But when was it ever?

PA. MILITARY UNITS HONORED

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Special ceremonies honoring units of the Army Reserve and the National Guard, including several Pennsylvania groups, were held at three military posts during the weekend.

The units, called up during the Berlin crisis last summer, are due to be released soon.

All participated in parades before military and civilian dignitaries.

More than 3,000 troops from seven states, including Pennsylvania, paraded at Ft. Knox, Ky.

The 322nd Military Police Detachment from Wilkes-Barre, Pa., was one of the 14 units in the ceremonies at Ft. Dix, N.J. Some 1,400 men participated in the parade.

At Ft. Bragg, N.C., units from Clearfield, Punxsutawney, St. Marys, DuBois, Philadelphia, Uniontown, Greensburg, Connellsville and Washington, Pa., participated in the parade. Some 11,500 guardsmen and reservists from 18 states took part in that ceremony.

The pre-season opener with the Baltimore Colts Aug. 11.

The Flash, a 2-year-old sprint run at Saratoga, was won three straight times by Eddie Arcaro — 1958, 1959 and 1961. The race was not held in 1960.

RED CHINA AND INDIA DIFFER OVER SHOOTING

TOKYO (AP) — Red China accused Indian troops today of firing on three Chinese military outposts during the past week in the disputed Ladakh region. It said such actions have caused grave tension along the China-India border.

In the most serious incident, a Chinese broadcast reported, Indian troops opened fire on a Chinese post in the Chip Chap Valley, touching off a 20-minute battle Saturday.

India claimed intruding Communist forces began the shooting in the Chip Chap area and said two Indian soldiers were wounded. It charged Chinese troops also opened fire on another Indian force elsewhere in the Himalayan region the same day.

SITUATION SERIOUS

In New Delhi, Prime Minister Nehru today described the situation as serious and added "we have to be wide awake." He declined further comment.

The Communist broadcast said the latest series of incidents began July 16 in China's Sinkiang region when Indian troops fired two shots at a Chinese post which did not return the fire.

Last Thursday, the broadcast said, Indian forces intruded into a Chinese area south of the Galway River and opened fire. It said Chinese forces "took no notice of the provocation."

The broadcast said: "The intrusion into our country by the Indian troops on the western sector of the border and the increasingly serious armed provocations have caused grave tension along the whole western sector of the Sino-Indian boundary."

The Ladakh region lies in the poorly mapped area where India's Kashmir Province meets China's Sinkiang Province and Tibet, which is under Chinese domination. The Chinese now control about 14,000 of the 15,000 square miles involved in the Ladakh dispute. Red China also claims another 46,000 square miles off territory India considers its own.

Missile Silo Blast Injures 20 Workers

RILLITO, Ariz. (AP) — An explosion in a Titan missile silo near this small southeastern Arizona community set off a fire and injured 20 men Sunday night authorities said.

Five of the workers, Gene Lassetter, 34; Kenneth Marberry, 41; Frank Manville, 61; Robert Benton, 56, and Raymond Lanham, 40, all of Tucson, were hospitalized for smoke inhalation.

The other workmen were treated and released.

Titan officials said the explosion occurred in a switch box located on the third level, 50 feet underground.

Officials said the trouble apparently started when a switch gear started tossing out a series of electrical flashes. A fire burned briefly, but was quickly extinguished, they said.

The officials estimated damage at $2,000.

PAUL KING IS S. S. SPEAKER

Paul E. King, supervising principal of the Littlestown Joint System, was the guest speaker in the Adult Department of the Sunday School of Redeemer's United Church of Christ, on Sunday morning. A solo was sung by Mrs. Robert W. Hall, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Richard A. Little Jr., who was also pianist for group singing. Prayer was offered by Mrs. George C. DeHoff. The program was in charge of the Hustlers' Class and Mrs. John W. LeGore presided. The program next Sunday at 9:30 a.m. will be arranged by the Junior and Senior High Class.

The Rev. Glenn Flinchbaugh, pastor of Redeemer's Church, delivered a sermon on the subject "We Cannot be Invisible Christians," during the worship service Sunday. He also read the Scripture from Romans 12. A solo, "23rd Psalm," was sung by Miss Sylvia Stonesifer, accompanied on the organ by her mother, Mrs. George A. Stonesifer. The pastor also spoke briefly on the recent Supreme Court decision that has ruled out prayer in the public schools of New York. The altar flowers were placed in memory of Rev. Urban Gutelius and his son, Theodore, by the Gutelius family.

CANCER GROUP EYES RADIANT BALLOON AID

By FRANK CAREY

MOSCOW (AP) — Development of a new "radiant balloon" technique for diagnosing stomach cancer was reported today by an American surgeon as the world's largest gathering of cancer fighters in history opened technical sessions.

Dr. Norman B. Ackerman of the University of Minnesota Medical School described the diagnosis technique to the eighth International Cancer Congress, meeting at Moscow University.

A patient suspected of having stomach cancer is first given a small dose of radioactive phosphorus. This particular isotope is known to be absorbed more by cancer tissue than by normal tissue.

RUBBER BALLOON

Then a thin-walled rubber balloon, coated with a latex-base emulsion sensitive to light and to other forms of radiation, is passed into the patient's stomach and inflated to fill the stomach cavity.

Rays from the radioactive phosphorus strike the balloon and make streaks on the emulsion lining. The balloon is deflated and withdrawn from the patient's stomach and the pattern of rays is studied by special techniques.

A particularly large concentration of streaks in a certain part could mean stomach cancer is present.

Dr. Ackerman said heretofore Geiger counters have been used to follow the action of radioactive phosphorus in the stomach. The diagnosis of cancer depended on whether an unusually large number of signals came from a certain part of the stomach.

He said Geiger counters, which

PHOENIX WIFE FACES THREAT OF PHOCOMELIA

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — A pregnant Phoenix woman says she has taken a drug believed to have caused the births of numerous malformed babies in Europe.

The woman, a young mother of four children, told the Arizona Republic her husband obtained a prescription for sleeping tablets containing the drug while they were in Europe last year.

She said they brought the tablets back to Arizona and she took some in the early weeks of her pregnancy.

The Republic said a majority of doctors polled said the pregnancy should be terminated. Most of them believed the chances of a normal child are small.

Abortion is prohibited by state law, except when it is necessary to save the mother's life.

The woman said she first found out the drug was dangerous last week in a newspaper article about Dr. Frances O. Kelsey, a medical officer with the U.S. Food and Drug Administration.

For more than a year she refused to approve the drug for general sale in the United States.

Doctors in Europe have linked the drug with phocomelia, a birth malformation which deprives its victims of arms or legs, or both.

must be held outside the body, present difficulties in tracing the phosphorus in relatively inaccessible areas.

He said the new balloon technique has now been used on some 400 patients with a "high degree of reliability."

SAYS SURGERY FAILS TO CURE MENTAL ILLS

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A Pittsburgh psychiatrist says a delicate brain operation widely used in the treatment of mental illness appears to have failed.

Dr. Robert L. Vosburg, assistant professor of psychiatry at the University of Pittsburgh, said Sunday the operation, called prefrontal lobotomy, "appears to have failed to curb either anti-social behavior or mental illness."

He described prefrontal lobotomy as an operation whereby a section of the brain in the front of the skull is cut off from the rest of the brain with the intention of relieving anxiety and other forms of emotion.

4 SEEMED HAPPIER

Dr. Vosburg made his conclusion about the operation after studying the effects of the operation on 32 patients.

Of the group as a whole he commented: "Typically, the operation brought few important personality changes."

He said of the 32 patients given intensive case history evaluation, 17 had been discharged and four of these "seemed to feel happier, were able to work more consistently, and were certainly less destructive than in former years."

MYSTERY REMAINS

However, he added, the rest showed a variety of symptoms including obvious psychosis and vegetative existence. He also observed slight memory losses in many patients.

"It remains a mystery that so little is altered in personality when so large a portion of the brain is damaged," Dr. Vosburg said.

He added that although the operation doesn't seem to accomplish its purpose, it has not increased the number of permanently ill.

ECUADOR CHIEF VISITS PHILA.

By ROBERT FRANKLIN
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—President Carlos Julio Arosemena of Ecuador flew to Washington today and a meeting with President Kennedy.

Arosemena and his party received an official welcome to Philadelphia Sunday night and visited Independence Hall.

In an interview Arosemena said his government is studying the military coup in Peru—an adjoining country not always on friendly terms with Ecuador—and would not reach a decision soon on what Ecuador's relations will be with the new junta. He said Ecuador has had a constitutional government since 1947 without military intervention.

The president said Ecuador's biggest problems were unemployment and the need for agrarian reform and improvement of sanitary facilities.

More than 1,000 persons—including U.S. Chief of Protocol Angier Biddle Duke and Mayor James H. J. Tate—greeted Arosemena at Philadelphia International Airport.

A Lovelier You

GENTLEMEN PREFER BROWNETTES. Here's a switch: A recent study of feminine hair coloring indicates that men actually prefer brown hair, Of those queried 43 per cent said that they favored brown-haired women. Blondes won only 17 per cent of the vote. Red, black and gray hair follow in that order.

One explanation given for the popularity of brown tresses is that they are the natural hair color of the greatest number of women in America. But ask the brownettes, and nine out of 10 will speak of their dissatisfaction with the shade. It's drab and uninteresting, they say. And doubtless that is why, since the improvement of dyes and tints, we see more blonde heads than we used to.

Of course, many a woman is devoted to her brown locks. She has good cause, too, when her hair is marked with a lively shade and a high gloss. The rub comes when brown hair is dull, dry and mousey, and a possessor has personal reasons for not making a drastic color change.

Happily her problem can be remedied. Creme conditioner rinses, cream hair dressings, and fanatical brushing soon achieve a high polish. Often those treatments also bring up color. It can be heightened as necessary with a tinted, temporary rinse or with a tinted hair spray.

All brownettes respond to rather sleek hairstyling. Intricately detailed styles dim the light in the hair. For the same reason, a permanent should aim at a very gentle curl.

Just add radiant make-up and clothing colors, and a brownette can live up to that winning vote!

What's your hair problem? You'll find a way to overcome it in my 16-page booklet, RULE YOUR WAVES. Advice includes: Beauty treatments for oily, dry and normal hair; ways to manage unduly locks; how to add color and highlights; tips on cutting, permanents and styling; grooming tricks. YORK, Pa. (AP)—A chemical explosion over the weekend caused an estimated $5,000 in damages to the J. F. Biesecker & Sons grain and flour mill near York. No one was injured.

Glenn Biesecker, son of the owner, said the explosion was caused by fumes from chemicals used to treat wheat.

World Briefs

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—The Chinese Nationalist ministry of justice in Formosa issued an order today forbidding executioners from forcing the condemned to kneel before firing squads.

This posture, the ministry explained, hurts the feelings of people being put to death.

The correct posture, the ministry said, is for the person being executed to stand with his back to the firing squad.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P.E.I. (AP)—Two Charlottetown youths, Jim Phillips and Angus Houston, are claiming a world record by tossing an ice cube back and forth between them 2,556 times before it melted. The stunt lasted 25 minutes.

This exceeded the record set in Lakewood, Calif., Wednesday by two youths who achieved 1,703 tosses with an ice cube.

The Charlottetown test was at a YMCA near Holland Cove with two camp officials acting as counters. The only rule is that a regulation refrigerator ice cube be used.

BERLIN (AP)—West Berlin police today reported an explosion on the elevated railway operated by the East German Communist regime. The line serves both East and West Berlin.

The explosion, apparently from a bottle filled with carbide, broke 15 windows on the train and one in a nearby house. One car was damaged. No one was reported hurt.

NICE, France (AP)—Marcel Gruat, 70, strolling across an intersection in this Riviera resort, was knocked down by a sports car driven by a pretty brunette. She didn't slow down. Gruat staggered to his feet and shouted uncomplimentary things about un-lady-like lady drivers.

Still in earshot, the brunette stopped her car, roared back in reverse, climbed out, took off a high-heeled shoe and slugged Gruat on the head.

Gruat was taken unconscious to a hospital. Attendants described his head injury as serious.

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—A group of World War II paratroop veterans have selected Lancaster, Pa., as the site of their 1963 convention. One fireman suffered minor burns during the blaze, the cause of which was not immediately determined.

TUCKAHOE, N.J. (AP)—Rocko Falgie, 14, Philadelphia was missing and presumed drowned today in the Tuckahoe River. Rescue squads Sunday failed to find the boy, who disappeared Saturday night while wading in about three feet of water. Authorities said he could not swim.

PLAN NUCLEAR SHOT TONIGHT

HONOLULU (AP)—Unless weather or technical problems interfere the United States will explode its second high-altitude nuclear warhead above Johnston Island late tonight.

The shot—one of the last of the current Pacific test series—will be much weaker than the thermonuclear explosion which lit up the mid-Pacific July 8. That blast was set off at a height of 210 miles and was seen from Hawaii to New Zealand.

Tonight's test will be at a probable altitude of 30 to 40 miles and will be in the sub-megaton range, equal to between 20,000 and one million tons of TNT.

The explosion is scheduled for 10 p.m. HST—3 a.m. EST Tuesday, but technical troubles or weather could delay it for as long as five hours.

SANTA PAUL, Calif. (AP)—Actor Ted Henderson, who appeared in more than 300 silent movies, died at his home Friday. He was 74.

CRITICISM OF NEW RED TEST PLANS MOUNT

By DENNIS NEEDLE
LONDON (AP)—Foreign criticism of Moscow's decision to stage a new series of nuclear weapons tests mounted slowly today. Long-anticipated, the Sunday announcement brought few immediate comments from weekending officials.

The United States deplored the announcement as "disturbing news" at a time when the disarmament conference in Geneva "is seeking new approaches for an agreement on a nuclear test ban treaty."

The State Department said "the world need hardly be reminded" that the Soviet Union touched off new rounds of nuclear weapon testing last September when it broke a moratorium which had existed for almost three years.

EXPECT EARLY START

The Moscow announcement did not say when the tests will begin, but it is assumed the first blast will be touched off in Siberia soon.

In Britain, the proposed new Soviet tests sent anti-nuclear pickets hurrying from outside the U.S. Embassy in London to the Soviet Embassy. The pickets had been parading in protest against the U.S. tests in the Pacific.

A group of young Britons said they hoped to recruit an international crew to sail a lifeboat into Leningrad harbor in September to protest the Soviet decision.

The liberal British newspaper Guardian urged that the West press for an agreement to end all further tests as soon as the new Soviet tests are finished. The paper said a Soviet claim to have an automatic right to test last is absurd.

GLENN'S ARE GUESTS OF KENNEDYS

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP)—Astronaut John H. Glenn, Jr.—who successfully made three orbits of the earth—tried making it around Lewis Bay on water skis while vacationing with the first family over the weekend.

Glenn did considerably better in outer space.

With President Kennedy looking on and with Mrs. Robert F. Kennedy at the controls of the motorboat, Glenn and Jacqueline Kennedy went water skiing Sunday on a tandem tow. Both took spills.

CAROLINE ON SKIS

Glenn, his wife and two children were weekend guests of Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, the President's brother. It was a family gathering, with a full complement of Kennedys joining the Glens on a cruise aboard the Kennedy family yacht, Marlin.

The President spent most of the day on board the Marlin, going over the side once for a short swim.

At one point, Mrs. Kennedy took her daughter, Caroline, on water skis with her. Caroline, who will be 5 in November, was bundled in a huge orange life preserver.

The condition of the 69-year-old British actor, admitted July 11, as been described as good. He is expected to be released within a few days.
